

“CAVS-E Announces Environmental, Health and Safety Assistance”

WHAT: CAVS-E announces environmental, health and safety training services to complement its existing industrial engineering capabilities.

HOW: These services are provided in two ways:

General: Regional one-day training session to address general environmental, health and safety topics.

Specific: On-site, facility-specific training for various environmental, health and safety programs.

Environmental: Air, Wastewater, Stormwater, Solid Waste, Hazardous Waste, Universal Waste, Used Oil, SARA Tier II, SARA Form R, DOT HazMat, ISO 14001

Health & Safety: OSHA 300 Log, Reportable Injuries, Job Safety Analysis, Bloodborne Pathogens, Hazard Communication, Global Harmonization System, Machine Guarding, Personal Protective Equipment, Respiratory Protection, Hearing Conservation, Walking-Working Surfaces, Fall Protection, Emergency Action and Fire Protection Plans, Electrical Safety, Arc Flash, Confined Space, OSHAS 18001

CONTACT: Paul Finger Lynes, PE, CHMM is Founder and President of Finger Lynes Engineering, an environmental and safety engineering company with extensive experience working with industry in Mississippi. Finger Lynes has worked with over 70 companies in 25 states. A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Paul has more than 30 years assisting industries, large to small, with regulatory compliance for both environmental and safety. Paul has implemented a practical approach to environmental, health and safety programs for small, medium and large facilities. Mr. Lynes is a Registered Professional Engineer in Tennessee, and Certified Hazardous Materials Manager. For more information please call Paul Finger Lynes, at 615-948-764 or email at paul@fingerlynes.com